

You've gone too far

[1er COUPLET]

You've gone too far in this land,
You've dragged me into the night,
But now, our path has an end,
And no one could be that bright.

Why, oh why, you're still there ?
Chasing after all the lies ?
Of the world, you should beware,
The evil in you will rise.

[REFRAIN]

Oh, why do you keep on fighting ?
Just to suffer a hundred years more.
Among shells, you're always hiding,
Far, far away from the distant shore.

Oh, why do you keep on living ?
There's no more bees in the Hive.
On earth, you've been crying,
Too many tears for being alive.

[2d COUPLET]

Mother was taken by the sea,
Her blood has faded into you.
Father has killed people for free,
But his pretty eyes are still blue.

You've gone too far from your town,
You don't even remember.
In a thousand sins, you drown.
Can't you still see her ?

[REFRAIN]

Oh, why do you keep on fighting ?
Just to suffer a hundred years more.
Among shells, you're always hiding,
Far, far away from the distant shore.

Oh, why do you keep on living ?
There's no more bees in the Hive.
On earth, you've been crying,
Too many tears for being alive.

[3ème COUPLET]

You've gone too far from her for too long,
Wandering next to the heavens.
And she thinks you're strong,
But there's too many questions...

At the end of this, dad might die,
But they will not live again.
And yet, you loved them so high,
You'll be hunted by the pain.

[REFRAIN]

Oh, why do you keep on fighting ?
Just to suffer a hundred years more.
Among shells, you're always hiding,
Far, far away from the distant shore.

Oh, why do you keep on living ?
There's no more bees in the Hive.
On earth, you've been crying,
Too many tears for being alive.
